

100th Day Homework

The "Hundredth Day of School" is coming! It is _____. We are planning a celebration and this homework assignment is in preparation for the big event! Here's what to do.

1. Brainstorm things you and your family could easily collect in quantities of 100.
2. Choose something from your list and gather 100 objects, like: 100 toothpicks, 100 beans, 100 shapes, 100 paper clips, ect... Please use items that ants will not like😊
3. Design a unique way to display your collection of 100 things. Tape or glue them on poster board or on paper, in groups of 10's or create a picture or design with the 100 objects.

Bring your collection to school by _____.
